Good Afternoon All,

I hope that you have been having a wonderful week - Claire is on well deserved annual leave this week and so I am covering for her.

If you missed the talk on Sunday from Rob do catch up, it was FANTASTIC - the link is here <https://youtu.be/G7fNubvgtiU>. It was so good to hear Rob and Sylvia's stories of listening to God, being called and the various test and challenges they have faced along the way. I love hearing from those I consider to be giants of faith in our church who have led by example in a life dedicated to following God and listening to his call - we have so much to learn! Rob underlined that Gideon's call was unexpected, uncompromising and challenging - it involved bravery, overcoming doubts, not being "under our circumstances" but trusting in the promise of the Way Maker that "I will be with you". Don't insulate yourself from risk or you will miss out on your calling and the good things that God has in store for you or as William Carey, the great missionary said "Expect great things from God and attempt great things for God".

Rob reminded us that as well as the general call to all Christians in Matthew 28 to be witnesses in the world God is also developing the specific call on our lives - that call is in spite of our qualifications, weaknesses, experience and background but possible through a dependence on an all powerful creator. Gideon was hiding, scared and basically in a big mess, his clan was one of the weakest and yet when God meets Gideon he says to him something like "God is with you, O mighty warrior".... There is no beating round the bush... he speaks directly to Gideon's identity, he names him and graces him for a particular task. I wonder how God is speaking to each of us today, what is he speaking into our lives, what is he gracing us to do... and what is our response? What holds us back from stepping in to God's call to our lives?

Claire is on annual leave this week. If you need anything urgently please contact a member of the Leadership Team.

Want to share in giving?

CoCoChu is entirely supported by the giving of people who come here. If you would like to speak to someone about giving, then see anyone of the leadership team who can point you in the right direction.

Our giving is totally anonymous to all but the finance team – most people give by standing order, but if you prefer there is a black box for offerings and donations on the welcome desk. If you are a tax payer please do sign a Gift Aid form to enable the church to recover tax and make the money go further. Once completed these can be put in the black box.

Bank details if you need them are: Colwall Community Church 09-01-54 73133709.

By everything I did, I showed how you should work to help everyone who is weak. Remember that our Lord Jesus said, "More blessings come from giving than from receiving." Acts 20:35
