Good Afternoon All,

I hope that you have been having a wonderful week. If you missed our service last Sunday or heard the talk on Caleb by Roger but wanted to know about the Champagne Pate connection that was missed in the talk you can hear it on-line in full here: <https://youtu.be/IVnCPJtqcDw>. The beautiful worship from Ruth and Sarah Levings is also available here: <https://youtu.be/lxXSIEvHWzw> and <https://youtu.be/O33wJGmX3B0>. The talk was all about the story of Caleb and his faithfulness and whole hearted devotion - he didn't blame others or God when things went wrong but was faithful and patient throughout. Roger spoke of his unusual ice skating style and the fact that to glide and skate properly you need to 'let go' as Elsa implores us in Frozen - and trust in God. It reminded me of a video that my brother published in the last week too. He is doing this fantastic project called 52 Humans, posting a video per week, drawing out the treasure in one individual per week, or the reflection of the maker. They are all absolutely wonderful and the one this week looks at the amazing gift of marriage and letting go - here's the link: <https://youtu.be/hKazyN7-Gis>. He pretty much has me in tears each week!!!

We will be starting a new teaching series on Sunday on the Psalms inspired by the book by Jonathan Aitken - called Psalms for People under Pressure. I have had this book a number of years and enjoy dipping into it. Jonathan Aitken knows a lot about being under pressure. He was a war correspondent in Vietnam, chief executive of TV-am, Chairman of a City of London Merchant bank then MP for 23 years and a Cabinet Minister. However although he reached giddy heights in the mid-1990s his world fell apart when he was caught telling a lie in court, under oath, and was sentenced to an 18 month prison sentence for perjury. On his journey through prison he became committed to a deep spiritual faith and studied the Psalms discovered in them what he calls "deep gold seams of ancient wisdom for coping with the pressures of modern life". We look forward to hearing about a few of the Psalms over the next month and drawing on their wisdom for everyday life. The first week we have the guest speaker Tim Keller (!) a recorded talk at HTB on Psalm 88 and coping with dark seasons in life - it is brilliant.

What's been going on at CoCoChu:

- The Colwall Youth Project has continued in the summer programme - please keep them in your prayers for fun, growing friendships, safety and protection. They have also had some more good news... see below :)

- The Trustees met on Monday evening - thank you all who to commit to this role, we are very grateful.
- The Lloyds are hosting a pizza evening for those children who are moving up to Youth from Aslan this evening.
- I have been liaising with speakers for our Autumn series.. more news on that in the next couple of weeks...
- The Kennells are off on holiday this Saturday (whoop!) and will be having a break for August from Leadership duties - please get in touch with the Lloyds if you have any urgent queries.
- Claire is back next week but will be on holiday the last week of August.
- We won't be having a service on the 30th August as it is a 5th Sunday but will be looking forward to starting term again on the 6th September with Tom and Sarah Jarratt sharing their reflections on their sabbatical.

Other notices

Pastoral Care

We would like everyone in the church to feel loved and connected - so many in our Church already do so much!! (Monica/Val and lots of others!) Mary and David Jarratt have also kindly agreed to be a point of call for pastoral needs. Please do get in touch if you would like someone to chat to or you need help in any way - their number is 01684 540 882.

Conference Opportunity

We had an e-mail from Neil Townsend of Wantage Community Church about a conference focusing on the Prophetic - here is some further information:

I'm very excited to finally be able to communicate fully about a weekend we have planned across the OpenGate churches, but open to all, in October. We have invited Mark Birch-Machin to be with us for the weekend. Mark is both an internationally known skin biology specialist, he also an internationally recognised prophetic voice (speakersoflife.org). He will be with us on the weekend of the 3-4th of October. On the Saturday there are two events which I wanted to let you know about:

Saturday the 3rd of October, 1pm-6pm, Great Expectations

We are each created for relationship with God and that transforms us and those around us. A relationship is about communication and we need to hear the voice of God and to carry what he shares both within ourselves and to share it with those around us. This afternoon conference will help us to grow in our ability to hear God (or even start!) and carry his words. Mark and his team will take time to share, and to impart to us from God.

For more information and booking: opengatecc.net/propheticDNA

Saturday the 3rd of October, 7:30pm, Going further in the prophetic

For those already in a prophetic team, or a school of prophets, this is a more focussed time with Mark and his team. He will go further in the gift of prophecy and depth of revelation and carrying that and his team. He will go further in the gift of prophecy and depth of revelation and carrying that revelation to others with greater impact. It will also include an introduction to Mark's vision for a nationwide network of prophetic voices.

Thursday Prayers

Thursday Prayer group will be having a break over the summer but will be back in September and welcomes all new recruits. This will still be held via Zoom for the foreseeable future so is accessible for all - so you can join in with pyjamas and coffee in hand.

This Sunday

ASLAN kids groups @ 10 AM

Aslan Time in August

Kids time for the next month will be a little different. It seems like a great opportunity to enjoy what other churches have been preparing for their children so we will be streaming kids services from Gas St church in Birmingham. They are a 20 minute slot packed full of fun, worship and teaching. So log on as usual at 10.00 and enjoy. The Bible focus will be Parables of Jesus. This week it's the story of the Two Builders, Matthew 7, v 24-27.

ZOOM @ 10.30 AM

This Sunday we will be listening to a talk on Psalm 88 by Tim Keller which is highly recommended. We are really looking forward to it...

Here's the Zoom Link for Sunday:

Good news! The Colwall Youth Project has been awarded £10,000 from the Eveson Trust

Alice and the A team have been having a busy summer running 5 youth sessions a day on Weds, Thurs and Fridays with 33 young people attending! The Project has also just heard that they have been awarded £10,000 from the Eveson Trust which can be used for staffing (more hours to work with the Youth) and online support for the young people of Colwall and beyond! Fantastic news, Alice, Amy and Aron!

Want to share in giving?

CoCoChu is entirely supported by the giving of people who come here. If you would like to speak to someone about giving, then see anyone of the leadership team who can point you in the right direction.

Our giving is totally anonymous to all but the finance team – most people give by standing order, but if you prefer there is a black box for offerings and donations on the welcome desk. If you are a tax payer please do sign a Gift Aid form to enable the church to recover tax and make the money go further. Once completed these can be put in the black box.

Bank details if you need them are: Colwall Community Church 09-01-54 73133709.

By everything I did, I showed how you should work to help everyone who is weak.

Remember that our Lord Jesus said, "more blessings come from giving than from receiving." Acts 20:35
